

I Love My Park Day

ON THE OLD CROTON AQUEDUCT

Saturday, May 6, 2017 9:30 am to 3:30 pm

2016 ILMPD

Rid the trail of invasive plants & Restore historic stone walls with The Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct

Lop vines, learn to identify, prune and remove invasive plants and bushes

Register in Advance at www.ptny.org/ilovemypark
Walk-ins Welcome

Where: On the trail along Quaker Bridge Road, Croton on Hudson (look for white canopy)

Parking: On street – look for designated volunteer signs between houses #124 & #99

Perks: Water, coffee, snacks, gloves, tee shirts, tools, & bug stuff provided

Bring: Lunch! Consider wearing long pants, a hat and a long sleeved shirt

Sponsored by Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct (aqueduct.org)

In collaboration with NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, Feed the Birds, Mrs. Greens, Lower Hudson Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management, Run On Hudson Valley, The Bronx River Parkway Reservation Conservancy, J&C Masonry & Landscaping, Inc. Karena Gray Photography and The Black Cow Coffee Company

