

Parks & Trails New York's

I LOVE MY PARK days

ON THE OLD CROTON
AQUEDUCT

Saturday, May 4, 2019

9:30 am to 3:00 pm

Rain date: Sunday, May 5

EVERYONE WELCOME – for all or part of the day!

CALLING ALL Nature Lovers, Walkers, Hikers & Bikers of the Aqueduct Trail

- Learn to identify INVASIVE plants
- Lop, pull and dig them up
- Plant NATIVE species
- Restore HISTORIC stone walls

Where: On the trail along Quaker Bridge Road, Croton-on-Hudson (look for white canopy)

Parking: On street – look for designated-volunteer signs between houses #124 & #99

Perks: Water, coffee, snacks, gloves, t-shirts, tools, & bug stuff provided

Bring: Lunch! Consider wearing long pants, a hat and a long-sleeved shirt.

Register in advance: www.aqueduct.org/events/i-love-my-park-day Walk-ins Welcome!

Hosted by the Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct (www.aqueduct.org) in collaboration with:
The Lower Hudson Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management; Feed the Birds;
Greens Natural Foods; The Black Cow Coffee Co; Baked By Susan;
Sonny Abbot's Salon; Hudson View Automotive;
Yoga Sol Croton

Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

Printing donated by the Croton UPS Store